

MACHINISTS RESIST NEWBERRY DECISION

Disappointed at Assistant Navy Secretary's Opposition to Increase.

His Action Reported to Yard Workers by Special Committee.

The decision of Assistant Secretary of the Navy Newberry that he will not agree to the advance in the wages of the machinists employed in the local navy yard, which is in accordance with the recommendation of the wage board's recommendations, is a great disappointment to the men employed there.

Mr. Newberry's decision, however, will be fought by the officials of the International Association of Machinists, who will take steps to have the decision of Mr. Newberry reviewed by the Secretary of the Navy, or possibly President Roosevelt, as they think both the wage board and Mr. Newberry have done the machinists employed in the Washington Gun Factory an injustice.

The committee of Columbia Lodge, No. 174, which has more than 2,000 members employed in the local yard, looking after an increase in the wages, accompanied by Emmett L. Adams, president of District Lodge, No. 44, which has charge of all International Association of Machinists employed in the Government service, called on Assistant Secretary Newberry for a conference.

The subject of the advance of wages asked for was fully canvassed, and while the committee made out a strong case in their plea, Mr. Newberry announced that he would stand pat on the existing rate and would not recommend any advance.

It is understood that this committee made its report of the interview with Mr. Newberry and his final decision to Columbia Lodge, No. 174, Wednesday night, and read a number of documents that had been presented to the Navy Department advocating the advance in wages.

The meeting was unanimous in its insistence to the committee to take the next step which will secure a review of the findings of Mr. Newberry.

The present scale of wages for the four classes of machinists employed at the navy yard run from a minimum of $2.04 to $2.76 per day of eight hours.

2,000-MILE WIRELESS MESSAGE IS REPORTED

Brig. Gen. James Allen, chief signal officer of the army, has published for the information of officers of the Signal Corps a remarkable record recently made by the wireless telegraph under control of the Signal Corps of the army. This was a record for distance of 2,000 miles made with a small power apparatus from the army transport Sherman, with the small 3-kilowatt station of the Signal Corps at Sitka, Alaska. The Sherman was bound for San Francisco and was far out in the Pacific.

Wellington Waterloo Winley Battles, But Name Is Hoodoo, And Soon He Meets a Waterloo

Events came thick and fast in the life of Wellington Waterloo Winley yesterday.

Wellington Waterloo disturbed the quietude of Fifteenth and V streets northwest with his pink and blue language early yesterday morning and Policeman Johnson of the Eighth district, was dispatched to 1430 V street to check the colored man.

It was then that Wellington met his Waterloo.

Wellington Winley is a fighter. He was a bold fighter yesterday morning, but a vanquished conqueror in the afternoon. He resisted arrest, and insisted that he was not in custody. It required a series of long arm swings on Wellington Winley's head with Johnson's baton to convince the colored man that he was in the meshes of the law.

With his scalp laid open in several places, Wellington Waterloo Winley was hurried to Freedman's Hospital. Events that followed would have given excuse for belief that young man's sewing society was in session. Wellington's various wounds were finally sewed up, and two attendants were ordered to take him to a ward.

On the way to the ward Wellington's fighting blood again rose up. Knocking down both attendants and giving each a kick, Wellington jumped through a window and leaped to the ground.

Two hours later he was rearrested and locked up. If he had been able to leave his head behind Wellington might have remained at liberty longer, but the snowy bandage around his chin features made him a marked man, easily apprehended.

In the Police Court he was fined $10 with thirty days in the workhouse in default of speedy payment.

TELEGRAPH OPERATORS BRING NEW CHARGES

A number of telegraph operators who were employed by the telegraph companies in Washington previous to the strike, but who have been kept on the waiting list since the strike was called off, are brought up over the companies employing telegraph operators on the night shift who are employed in the various Government departments during the day.

It is said that a dozen or more telegraph operators who have good positions in the departments, either as clerks or operators, are regularly employed by the companies, while many of the men who walked out on the strike are denied employment. The practice has long been followed without serious complaint.

The question is one of lively interest in view of the resolution introduced by Representative Littlefield of Maine, which asked for information concerning the employment of Government clerks after office hours.

Many of the telegraph operators who have been given no work charge that the companies are purposely holding them out as a measure of discipline, which they are able to do, it is said, by the aid of the Government clerks.

EMBEZZLER ARRESTED ON DAIRYMAN'S COMPLAINT

James E. Groves, twenty-one years of age, who drives a milk wagon for Alexander Mowatt, of 1323 Fourteenth street northwest, was arrested yesterday morning on a charge of embezzlement. The warrant was sworn out by Mowatt, who claims that Groves attempted to take $75 which he had collected on his route. Groves admits his guilt. The prisoner will be given a hearing in Police Court tomorrow morning.

BLAZE CAUSES $20 LOSS.

A small blaze caused $20 damage to the out as a James W. Miller's home, 165 A street northeast, about 9 o'clock last night. An overturned oil stove was the cause.

places, Wellington Waterloo Winley was hurried to Freedman's Hospital. Events that followed would have given excuse for belief that young man's sewing society was in session. Wellington's various wounds were finally sewed up, and two attendants were ordered to take him to a ward.

On the way to the ward Wellington's fighting blood again rose up. Knocking down both attendants and giving each a kick, Wellington jumped through a window and leaped to the ground.

Two hours later he was rearrested and locked up. If he had been able to leave his head behind Wellington might have remained at liberty longer, but the snowy bandage around his chin features made him a marked man, easily apprehended.

In the Police Court he was fined $10 with thirty days in the workhouse in default of speedy payment.

RETIRED OFFICERS LOSE SCHOOLSHIP BERTHS

Under orders issued by the Navy Department, several naval officers on the retired list were relieved from duty in command of nautical school ships. Commander G. C. Hensu, retired, was detached from command of the New York nautical school ship St. Mary's; Commander W. F. Low, retired, from command of the Massachusetts ship Enterprise; Commander C. N. Atwater, retired, from duty as superintendent of the Pennsylvania school ship Saratoga; and Warrant Officer J. O'Neill, retired, from duty on the Enterprise.

A question of pay has arisen over the assignment of these and other retired officers that caused their relief. In taking command of vessels they are of course received active pay, or the full pay of an officer on the active list of the navy.

In addition, they were paid by the various States in whose service they were, and consequently were drawing a much bigger salary than officers of the line of the navy on active duty, and in addition were performing no service of direct benefit to the navy. This was thought by the department to be inequitable, and their relief followed.

They may, if they desire, continue in command of the vessels under orders from the State, as the department has not the least objection, the only question involved being that of pay.

From the date of their relief from active duty under orders from the Navy Department, they will revert to the status of retired officers unemployed, so far the department is concerned, and will draw only the pay of such a retired officer. This, in addition to the pay received from the State, is deemed to be ample compensation.

DETECTIVES ARE REWARDED.

Detectives Durman, Baur, and Cornwall were given $5 each as a reward for the excellent manner in which they worked in Woodward & Lothrop's department store. The Commissioners allowed them to keep all but 25 per cent, which goes to the clothing and helmet fund of the detective department.

HEIRS TO $100,000 TO HUNT FOR PROPERTY

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—Lost for nineteen years, a letter with a valuable postscript attached has just been found and probated as the last will and testament of the late Dr. William G. Simcox. The exact value of the estate has not been learned, because the heirs failed to locate securities and moneys. The finding of the postscript fails to reveal where his property is located, but intimates that he was worth at least $100,000 at the time of his death, nineteen years ago. When an effort was made to settle the estate only a few dollars were found in a local bank.

The heirs, consisting of his children, are to begin a fresh search for his money and documents that would lead to its recovery.

TRAIN STRIKES MAN; HIS FOOT AMPUTATED

While walking along the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks at Florida and New York avenues northeast last night at 9:40 o'clock, P. C. Moore, of Ivy City, was struck by the fender of a freight engine and suffered a broken jaw, crushed foot and minor injuries about the body. Dr. Watson Moffitt, of Casualty Hospital, responded to a call sent in by the train crew and hurried the man to the hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the right foot.

Moore attempted to get off the tracks when he saw the train approaching, but fell. He was unable to recover his footing before the engine struck him. At a late hour last night the physicians said that the man had regained consciousness and was rapidly improving.

ACCUSER OF POLICEMAN HELD AS PERJURER

As an outgrowth of a hearing before the police trial board yesterday, which was considering the case against Policeman Stringfellow, of the Third precinct, on charges of a serious nature, Ernest Holmes, colored, the prosecuting witness, was ordered arrested on a charge of perjury.

Holmes, who is about twenty years old, preferred charges against the policeman of assault and of failure to protect his prisoner from repeated assaults by Joseph Leary, a saloonkeeper. The witnesses for the defense supported Officer Stringfellow in saying that he did not assault the prisoner and that the prisoner was never assaulted while in his care. The witnesses for the prosecution were as emphatic in their claim that Holmes had been cuffed and kicked by the policeman.

The case against Officer W. T. Halloran, of No. 4 precinct, has been decided by the trial board, but its findings will not be made public until the report reaches Mayor Sylvester. Officer Halloran was charged by the police surgeon with being inefficient by reason of intoxication.

CLERKS PROMOTED AT THE POSTOFFICE

Benj. Scrivener and Michael Glittenau were appointed watchmen at salaries of $600 per annum.

PAYS CALL—FIGHT FOLLOWS.

Harry Gunner will spend the next eleven months and twenty-nine days pondering over the error of his ways. Because Harry Liverpool went calling on Henry's girl, the latter mixed Harry's countenance until even Harry's mother would fail to recognize her young hopeful. Officer Jones appeared on the scene as Gunner was putting on the finishing touches and affixing the high lights, and took Henry into custody.

FATHER MAGUIRE'S WILL FILED IN PROBATE COURT

The will of Father Joseph I. Maguire, pastor of the Church of the Holy Comforter, who died last week, was filed for probate yesterday. It leaves the bulk of the property to his mother. Upon the death of his mother the proceeds of the life insurance policies of the testator will go to a sister, Mrs. Agnes J. Watson. Another sister of the testator, Mrs. Agnes B. Creamer, will receive $200, and Mrs. Watson will receive the remainder of the estate after all debts and the funeral expenses are paid.

Father Boone, who has been a close personal friend of the deceased, will receive, according to the will, the watch, chain and charm, and the library and curios formerly belonging to the testator. These are to be presented to friends of Father Maguire as Father Boone may see fit.

SHOT NEW YEAR EVE, BRY FINALLY DIES

Clarence Minor, thirteen years of age, living at 110 Second street southwest, who was taken to the Emergency Hospital December 31, suffering from a gunshot wound in the stomach, died at that institution yesterday afternoon. He was accidentally shot by Robert Coleman, of 717 Second street, while the two were playing with a gun. They were preparing the weapon to be used as soon as the old year should give way to the new.

Coleman, who is twenty-five years of age, is held pending the inquest that has been ordered by Coroner Nevitt.

SUPPLY OF ENVELOPES OBTAINED BY POSTOFFICE

Third Assistant Postmaster General A. L. Lawshaw announces that the Postoffice Department is prepared to fill promptly all requisitions for special request and plain-stamped envelopes, the new contractors having brought the work of the factory practically to date.

This announcement is an end of the trouble the department has experienced in the last few months in securing a sufficient quantity of envelopes to supply the demand, following the trouble with the Hartford Manufacturing Company, of Hartford, Conn., which got in bad with the department over the alleged cheapening of the stock, and which finally paid the department the sum of $100,000 as a compromise settlement.

The envelopes are now being made by a firm in Ohio that was organized for the purpose of doing this work. For some time before the change the public found much fault with the quality of the envelopes, and since the contract was changed considerable delay has been experienced in filling orders, but it is now the hope of the department that all these troubles are things of the past, and that no more complaints will be made.

MUSICIAN SINGS PRAISE OF CHASE BROS. PIANO

In this age of keen competition and multitude of new inventions even the oldest and most distinguished articles need to be reintroduced to the public. The character and durability of the Chase Bros' pianos, which have stood the test for half a century with ever increasing popularity, are well known to piano buyers of the last generation, but the following expressions doubtless will prove of interest to the young prospective purchasers:

"Gentlemen: Having been appointed by the Brazilian government to open the Brazilian Building at the World's Columbian Fair, Chicago, Ill., in a grand musical concert, and having made a critical examination of all American pianos, I selected the Chase Bros. instruments on this occasion. These artistic pianos possess, in the highest degree, nobility of tone, most perfect elasticity of action, and have the most beautiful singing quality of tone possible to conceive. Artists and amateurs should especially examine these great pianos before purchasing others. The Chase Bros' pianos are built on the most scientific principles, and from their careful construction I believe will stand in tune and retain their tone under all conditions of climate. I used them exclusively at all my concerts while in America, and selected one which accompanied me to Milan. Italy. Sincerely yours, CARLOS GOMES."
